The CDF Library accepts the following items for the collection

BOOKS

The library graciously accepts new, used and rare books on Galápagos science, conservation, history, social issues and closely-related subjects. No Deed of Gift needed.

IMAGES

The library graciously accepts recent and historic photographs, slides, films, video tapes and digital images of Galápagos, the research station, and related topics. Copyright for images taken by individuals will be transferred to the Charles Darwin Foundation upon signing of the Deed of Gift and receipt of the images. CDF will have the right to digitize any images donated to the library and use them in whatever manner it likes.

UNPUBLISHED MATERIALS

The library graciously accepts theses, manuscripts, correspondence, documents, reports, texts of speeches, data files, notes, and other materials specifically related to CDF; Galápagos conservation, history and development; Galápagos National Park, the Marine Reserve, and closely related topics.
